DETAILED ACTION

1. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on foreign applications No. 2000-374934 filed on December 08, 2000 in Japan, and No. 2001-301549 filed on September 28, 2001 in Japan. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified English translation of the above applications as required per 37 CFR 1.55 (a) (4).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 1, 2, 6, 7, and 9-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Dionne et al. 6,460,692.

Dionne '692 discloses a substrate conveyor having variable width guides, and a method of using a camera for varying said guides per claimed invention (Figures 3-18).

Dionne '692 uses a Pattern Error Correction (PEC) camera mounted on a movable pick machine to bring each of the laterally movable guide rails to respective start positions for calibration. Said PEC camera detects fiducial marking 306 located on each of the rails to control the movement of said rails.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 14-27 are allowable over the prior art of record.
5. Claims 3-5 and 8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. Additional references made of record and not relied upon are considered to be of interest to applicant's disclosure: see attached USPTO Form 892.
